Remember the chapters were separated based on the topics !! – That shows we are into a new Topic.

Such division was not originally written by the writer.

When you hear the Gospel, how do we follow?

1 Pet 2:21 - What is the example Jesus set for us?

Gospel of Jesus is Death, Burial & Resurrection – would you able to connect this?

When you Accept Jesus is Christ and Son of God !! What are we doing?

Refer V3 last portion –

We need to do so – that’s the example !!

Jesus died on the cross and the Bible says the unsaved must "die to sin" Rom 6:11 – called as Repentance.

Jesus forcefully proclaimed the need for repentance in Luke 13:3, 5 – [illegible]

On the Day of Pentecost Peter said his hearers had to "repent" (Act 2:38).

Paul proclaimed the universal nature of repentance when he said "all men everywhere" must "repent" (Act 17:30) [illegible] ....

Before a person can become a Christian, he must "die" to the ways of the world. As Paul said in Col 3:1-2 - Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth For ye died, and your life is hid with Christ in God

After Jesus died He was “buried.”

Those who want to become a Christian must also be “buried.”

The Bible says this happens by and through baptism (Col 2:12).

Since Col 2:12 describes baptism as a “burial,” proper baptism requires immersion (having water sprinkled or poured on the body is not New Testament baptism).

GET YOURSELF BURIED WITH CHRIST, IF NOT YET SO !!

Baptism is THE FINAL ACT that puts someone “into Christ” (Gal 3:27).

God certainly requires belief (Heb 11:6), Repentance (Luk 13:3), and an acknowledgement of who Jesus is (Acts 8:37), but these steps are not enough. Until a person is baptized, he is not “joined with Christ” (Rom 6:4

Rom 6:4 refers to a “resurrection.”

Jesus was raised on the third day and sinners need to be raised so they can walk in “newness of life” (Rom 6:4).

This “new life” comes after baptism.

Before baptism a person is unsaved (Mar 16:16) and guilty of all his sins (Act 2:38).

Proper baptism allows a person to contact the benefits of Jesus’ blood and thereby “wash away his sins” (Act 22:16).

Once a person’s sins have been washed away, his life is literally new (2Cor 5:17).

Peter proclaimed this same information on the Day of Pentecost.

He spoke of Jesus (Act 2:22) and said the Lord was killed as determined (Act 2:23).

He also said Jesus was "buried" (Act 2:31) and then "raised up" (Act2:32) from the dead.

Peter even affirmed that there were "witnesses" for the Lord's resurrection (Act 2:32).

After Peter proclaimed that Jesus was "Lord and Christ" (Act2:36), several asked what they needed to do (Act 2:37).

Peter's response is found in Act 2:38 The believers in Act 2:47 were joined to Christ in the same way the Corinthians were. These people repented of their sins so they could share in the likeness of Jesus' death, they were buried
